Dick Tracy Makes Debut Over Television Tonight

Comic strip fans will be treated to one of their favorites in action when the DICK TRACY series makes its debut on KNBH tonight at 7.

The series will bring television audiences all the characters made famous in the Chester Gould comic strip: Sam Catchem, Tess Trueheart, Junior, Diet Smith, B. O. Plenty, Gravel Gertie and a host of others.

Dick Tracy is played by Ralph Byrd, who created the feature roll in the Tracy series for RKO.

Other members of the cast include Joe Devlin as Sam Catchem, Lyle Talbot as The Brain and Angela Greene as Tess.

The first episode in this new series is titled "B. O. Plenty's Folly." The story involves a valuable stolen painting which B. O. buys in a pawnshop, as a gift for his wife, Gravel Gertie. The thief's henchmen, Creep and Fingers, kidnap B. O. Tracy is close on the trail of the criminals and is assisted by Catchem when a gun battle begins.

Heavy Filming Schedule Set for Roy Rogers' TV

By TOM DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. Meet Roy Rogers—"King of the Cowboys"—and Dale Evans, his lovely wife and co-star, who is appropriately known as "Queen of the West." In a recent interview on the set at Goldwyn Studios, where they were in the finishing touches of their 20th half-hour television show, Roy and Dale told me a little about their new TV series, which, of course, should become a top-rater with the kids.

The show is a straight drama, western flavor, packed with thrills and action from Roy, Dale and Trigger, "the smartest horse in the movies."

Roy and Dale were practically knocking themselves out trying to stay with a schedule so they could travel to Houston, Texas, where they will appear in the fat stock show and rodeo. Yes, Trigger is going, too, but in his own specially built trailer.

Regardless of the cold weather and the rainstorms, the unit has been working at top speed. When the weather was good, all of the outdoor scenes were filmed, and when the heavy California "dew" descended, the cast moved into the Goldwyn Studios. Although Dale had suffered a severe cold, she continued to work, wrapping herself in a blanket between takes, maintaining her reputation as a "good trouper."

The fine teamwork and co-operation of the entire gang was very noticeable, with lots of "please . . . thanks . . ." and "would you be kind enough to . . ." on the set. It's really a pleasure to find this kind of spirit on a set, rather than the usual screaming from the producer and director, which almost always results in grumbling among the cast.

The series is particularly noted for its exceptional sharp photography which makes for easy Tviewing, and for its general entertainment value for all.

The theme song, "Happy Trails to You," was written by Roy and Dale.

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW—A letter to KHJ recently was addressed to "Cover Handling, Station KHJ, Hollywood, Cali." A search for a Don Lee employe by that name proved futile; however, Terry Mann, account executive came up with the solution. A creamery account of his was running an offer and the air copy called for the announcer to say "Mail 10 cents to cover handling, etc." It seems this listener not only took it literally, but verbatim!

LOOKING AND LISTENING

Columbia Will Build Big TV Center in Hollywood

By KING CHARLES

The Columbia Broadcasting System's lavish television city in Hollywood will open for coast-to-coast operations Oct. 1.

CBS, detailing plans for its new center for the first time, announced it will be built around a core of four huge studios, each with 12,100 square feet of floor space.

CBS called it the world's first "TV-designed" community.

The studios have many movable walls and partitions and sets, shops and storage rooms are arranged to form a sort of "production line" to facilitate the job of producing shows.

The first unit, now 30 per cent complete, will cover 15 acres. Ultimately the installation will cover 25 acres, with a 13-story administration building and 600,000 square feet of floor space.

The site is Gilmore Island, a strip of county territory within the city limits formerly occupied by Gilmore Stadium.

How to make valentines of crepe paper will be shown on PLAYCRAFTER'S CLUB at 5 this afternoon on KTLA.

INVITATION PLAYHOUSE at 7 on KLAC-TV brings "Flashback" in which Steven Chase, Linda Johnson and Robert W. Rose star in a story dealing with a marriage of 12 years standing which becomes rocky. The second play is "Sweet Little Dame," in which a girl very deftly takes a big-time gambler for $2500 only to be retaken.

"The Son of Monte Cristo," swashbuckling sequel to "Count of Monte Cristo," will be seen for the first time on TV tonight at 7 on KTTV. It stars LOUIS HAYWARD, JOAN BENNETT and GEORGE SANDERS. It tells the story of a young and gallant son of the Count who masquerades as "The Torch," so that he can work secretly to overthrow the villainous dictator. Also in the cast are Florence Bates, Lionel Royce, Montague Love and many others.

At their home in San Fernando Valley ANDY DEVINE and his wife and two sons, Tad and Danny, have an exciting game of badminton on the 7:15 edition of Erskine Johnson's "Hollywood Reel" on KTLA. Beautiful Geraldine Brooks goes shopping in Beverly Hills in another scene, and the use of a helicopter in a movie scene also is shown.

The KTLA movie at 9 tonight is "Caged Fury" with RICHARD DENNING and SHEILA RYAN.

An accountant's efforts to extricate himself from blame in "Witness to Murder" is the picture on "THE WEB" at 6:30 this evening from KNXT.

The DUDE MARTIN show on KTTV at 9 tonight offers JIMMY WAKELY as special guest. Another is Elmore Vincent, noted actor and impressionist who will recreate his reading, "He Knew Lincoln." That "plain old-country boy" HANK PENNY gets into trouble when he tries to buy a suit. SUE THOMPSON will sing, "No Te Importe Saber."

Tonight's prizefight on KNXT at 7 brings Corky Gonzales against Gene Smith from Washington, D. C. It should be a good featherweight battle.

CURT MASSEY and MARTHA TILTON duet "Life Is a Beautiful Thing" and "Any Time" on the Curt Massey Time show on KNX-radio a 4 this afternoon.

FRED ASTAIRE, the master of terpsichore, will be BING CROSBY'S guest on KNX-radio at 6:30. Fred and Bing will do a song parody, "Oops," from the song of the same name from Fred's film, "The Belle of New York."

"Jungle Adventures" on KTLA at 7:30 this evening shows a group of young explorers battle the dangers of the jungle under the guidance of Osa Johnson.

KNX-radio will bring the middleweight boxing bout between Eugene Hairston of New York and Robert Villemain of Paris from the Detroit Olympic at 7.

KTTV will brin amateur boxing on Channel 11 at 10 o'clock.

Literary gems come to life in the Alpine Hotel at 8 tonight on FROSTY FROLICS over KTLA at 8. Stan Chambers browses through some old books and such characters as Huck Finn, Goldilocks and fictional folf from "Arabian Nights" and "Drums Along the Mohawk" will come to life.

The impending adoption of "Davie" strikes a snag with the appearance of a woman claiming to be his mother on "DR. CHRISTIAN" on KNX-radio at 8:30. The story is from a prize-winning script by E. R. R. Woolvin of North Hollywood.

SEN. JAMES A. DUFF of Pennsylvania will discuss the "Eisenhower-for-President" movement on MAN OF THE WEEK telecast at 10:30 tonight over KNXT. Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, Ken Crawford, editor of Newsweek, and Walter Cronkite of CBS news will interview Sen. Duff.

New Singer Found by Martin, Lewis

The old chestnut about girls being discovered in Hollywood was the springboard for Jill Jarmon's contract to appear on the Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis "Colgate Comedy Hour," NBC-TV, Sunday (KNBH at 8:00 p. m. This is Miss Jarmon's initial work on west coast television, and follows Martin and Lewis' plan to introduce new, though professional, singers, on their NBC-TV shows.

Born in Aurora, Ill., Oct. 8, 1929, Miss Jarmon broke into show business with her two brothers, as a vocal trio. At the age of 15, she sang on WMRO, Aurora, and two years later went with Ray Pearl's band as featured vocalist. She studied at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago and following her musical studies worked with a repertory stock theor in Waterbury, Conn.

Fibber Five Plays Oilers Sunday

In what should be a thrilling game, the Fibber McGee and Molly quintet will meet the famed Phillips 66ers Sunday at 3 p. m.

KTTV, Channel 11, will carry this game in its entirety, with Bill Welsh mikeside to describe the action.

The L. A. McGees will go into this tough game with another win under their belts, 60-44, over Milwaukee Allen-Bradley in last Sunday's fray.

Perhaps the best known player in theNational Industrial Basketball League is the 66ers' seven-foot center, Bob Kurland, who has been an AAU All-American each of his five years with Phillips.

Among the other top-flight players to be brought to Los Angeles for this game by coach J. B. (Cab) Renick are Loy Doty, D. L. Miller, Lloyd Hendrix, Ken Pryor, Paul Courty, Bill Kleine, Jim Line, Claude Houchin, Bus Whitehead, Bob Likens, Bob Likens, Bob Pierce and Wayne Glasgow.

KTTV is currently telecasting all the Sunday afternoon home games of the Fibber team. Games are played at the Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks.

Time Changed

Effective tonight the Halls of Ivy radio show, usually heard at 6:30 will be changed to 7 p. m. It is received in this area over KFI-radio.

Fuzzy Knight Taking 'Refresher'

HOLLYWOOD. It's back to the night clubs for Fuzzy Knight. The onetime law student who turned to vaudeville, then musical comedy and the screen is going to take a refresher course in how to be funny.

Knight, who just finished a featured role with Whip Wilson in Monogram's "Texas Marshal," confided to his leather-lashing friend that several years of steady screen work have kept him away too long from audience contact. So he's going back in front of live audiences.

He will not give up his work in motion pictures. He will play a selected series of engagements between pictures and is now polishing up a new routine.
