Glamorous Hillary Brooke on TV With Abbot, Costello

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. I've got a confession to make. I'm a new man. I have been captivated by one of the most ravishing blondes who has ever made a television tube melt—Hillary Brooke, who is 5 feet 7 inches of super-glamour in the new Abbott and Costello filmed video series now being readied for your entertainment via NBC-TV in the near future.

I lunched with Hillary in a quiet little Hollywood restaurant the other noon. At least it was quiet until she walked through the cafe to our table. Every eye in the place followed her, and you could hear the whispers. Now I know how it feels to be a performer in the spotlight. When she turned her blue eyes on me I ate my napkins and wiped my face with the beef stew . . . wow!

Anyway getting back to Hillary, I had expected to find an actress who preferred to wear striking evening gowns and portray the wicked woman who always gets the other woman's man. But Miss B. has other notions.

"Never again the other woman if I can help it," she told me. "I have finished 25 TV films with Abbott and Costello and will do 13 more. They are the greatest challenge anyone could have.

"Why, in most films or television or radio shows you know your lines and every bit of action. But with Bud and Lou, you start shooting with only a bare outline. (Costello hates to rehearse. He says things never come out the same as the script anyway). It's the most stimulating experience I've ever had," she continued, "and I think TV audiences will welcome these new half-hour features."

Hillary has appeared on a number of video panel shows here as well as network dramas out of New York.

I found that many people shared my impression that the beautiful Miss Brooke was an English actress. "I used to sound like one," she said, "because that's what producers wanted for a time. Actually, I was born in Brooklyn, and I'm Scandinavian, thank you."

"And thank you for the lunch, too," she said as she powdered her nose and turned those blue eyes on me again.

I put my coffee cup on my head and went back to the office.

LOOKING AND LISTENING

'Claudia' Moves to KNXT in CBS Premiere Tonight

By KING CHARLES

CLAUDIA, the STORY OF MARRIAGE, makes its CBS-TV premiere tonight at 8:30 on KNXT, channel 2. Previously shown Sunday afternoons on KECA-TV, the premiere scrip by Dougherty Brown deals with the in-law problem.

Tonight Claudia, played by Joan McCracken, plans a dinner party to convince her in-laws that her marriage to David has not jeopardized his social position and career. Hugh Reilley plays David, Margaret Wycherly, Claudia's mother; Dora Sayers, Julia; and William Jost Jr., Harley Naughton.

ON TV TONIGHT

YESTERDAY'S NEWSREEL at 7:15 on KTLA, channel 5, will show the history of the atom bomb from the first discoveries of Mme. Curie and Albert Einstein's Theory of Relativity. The cameras also catch PRINCE MICHAEL of Romania and SERGEI RACHMANINOFF, pianist-composer, at work. The million-dollar Jersey City disaster of 1924 will also be shown.

Movies on KTLA today will be "Successful Failure," with William Collier at 4 and "Tenth Ave. Kid," with Bruce Cabot and Beverly Roberts at 9.

Douglas Southall Freeman's Pulitzer prize-winning biography, ROBERT E. LEE, will be dramatized on PULITZER PRIZE PLAYHOUSE at 7 tonight on KECA-TV. Originally published in four volumes, the work was adapted for this medium by H. R. Hays.

"The Kate Smith Evening Hour" at 8 tonight on KNBH, channel 4, will feature the MAIN STREET MUSIC HALL GROUP, stars of NBC's "Grand Old Opry" program. Paul Kelly, character actor, will be starred in the dramatic portion of the program.

Dennis O'Keefe and William Bendix portray a pair of rugged Marines in "Abroad with Two Yanks," the feature film at 7 on KTTV. John Loder, George Cleveland and Janet Lambert are supporting players.

A cold and frosty Easter is in store for FROSTY FROLICS at 8 on KTLA. Latest fashions will be paraded in a frigid setting and there's to be an Easter egg hunt on ice. Easter lilies blooming in snowbanks and a sunrise service will take the chill off television's only musical comedy on ice.
