LOOKING AND LISTENING

Godfrey Returns on Skates in Repeat Show Tonight

By KING CHARLES

ARTHUR GODFREY and ALL HIS FRIENDS will be back on skates tonight when the show hits the airwaves at 9, KNXT, Channel 2. This promises to be more than a repeat of their popular January effort. Several months rehearsal to perfect techniques should bring results.

Terry Roxanne and Joan Walden, two professional skaters, will be back on this show. Terry, you may remember, did a spectacular dance on skates and Joan was seen in an interpretive skate-dance. They both danced with Godfrey in "Shake Me Loose."

Twenty-one years ago, Godfrey suffered multiple fractures in an automobile accident. He spent two years on crutches, four on canes and now he's skating in his late 40s.

GOV. WARREN will resume his monthly "REPORT TO THE PEOPLE" at 9 tonight on KECA-TV, Channel 7. He is expected to sign one of the important bills passed during the special legislative session. It has also been announced by ABC that he will discuss the work of the session and current budget problems.

Big news on radio tonight is the 15-round middleweight championship fight between titleholder RAY ROBINSON and his challenger, ROCKY GRAZIANO from the Chicago Stadium, KNX will carry the exclusive broadcast in this area from 7 to 7:45.

Steve Ellis will do the blow-by-blow descriptive narrating and Lester Bromberg will analyze each round.

ON RADIO TONIGHT

Inspector Mark Saber and Sgt. Tim Maloney pose as gullible tourists in Tijuana in "The Case of the Visiting Firemen" on MYSTERY THEATER at 7:30, KECA. Their mission is to break up a diamond smuggling ring.

HALLS OF IVY at 7, KFI, brings the story of an exchange student's critical impressions in the college paper. Nicknamed "Mademoiselle from Sorbonne," the girl brings turmoil to the campus until Dr. (Ronald Colman) Todhunter Hall and his wife step in.

THE TOP GUY investigates a hit-run accident tonight and finds himself in the midst of "The Cast of the Caged Reefers" at 8, KECA.

"Murder in the Church" is BIG TOWN'S offering at 9 on KNX. Steve and Lorelei nab a phony clergyman and his pals in this half-hour show.

THE BELL SISTERS of Seal Beach and Helen O'Connell are slated as special guests for the BING CROSBY SHOW at 6:30, KNX. Solo number for the Bells will be "Ruta Ruta" and Bing will join them in "Wheel of Fortune."

KTLA movies for today are "Make a Million," Charles Starret and Pauline Brooks, and "Citadel of Crime," Robert Armstrong, Frank Albertson and Linda Hayes.

TIME FOR DEFENSE will bring three businessmen and John Kieran, newspaper writer, to the microphone at 9:30, KECA, to give their views on the state of national preparedness. Guests will be John H. Kraft, W. O. Briggs and Charles E. Becker.

The story of a spoiled young woman, "On Her Terms," is the prize play on DR. CHRISTIAN at 8:30 on KNX. Jean Hersholt stars as the doctor. Rosemary DeCamp is Judy Price.

WILD BILL HICKOK goes into action against a gang of counterfeiters at 5:30, KHJ.

BIG STORY award tonight goes to a newspaper woman, Victorine Belanger of the Baltimore News-Post, at 9:30, KFI. Her solution of a torch slaying will be enacted by radio actress Amzio Strickland.

TV TONIGHT

A full hour production. "Morning's at Seven." is promised for CELANESE THEATER production at 7, KECA-TV. Pat Collinge will be seen in the role played on Broadway by Dorothy Gish. Aline MacMahon is co-starred.

That Brooklyn comedian of Broadway will guest star on the KATE SMITH HOUR at 8, KNBH. The Four Aces quartet will make their second appearance singing "Spring Is a Wonderful Thing."

CLAUDIA walks right into trouble tonight when she tries to return an unwanted wedding gift, at 8:30, KNXT.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D.-Okla.) is MAN OF THE WEEK at 10:30, KNXT. He will be interviewed by William Hillman, author of the recently published "Mr. President."

LIBERACE will open with "Tiger Rag" at 7:30. KLAC-TV, tempering it with a Chopin medley.

Boxing tonight will bring a 10-round featherweight match between Gene Smith and Glen Flanagan at 7 on KNXT. Neither fighter has yet met defeat and something's bound to give tonight.

TV Freeze Lift May Bring Renewed Boom to Industry

By C. E. CUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, (AP) Prime effect of the lifting of the three and one-half year old freeze on new television station licenses by the Federal Communications Commission should be to inject new life into the industry. Some of the "boom" aspects of the past may be due for a comeback.

This isn't going to happen immediately, but by the end of the year conditions are expected to be such that new stations will be going on the air to augment the 108 now operating. Many communities will be having their introduction to TV, which in turn should revive the lagging sale of receivers, now totaling more than $16,000,000 nation-wide.

The manufacturing end naturally will be first to feel the spurt. While the comparatively few transmitter builders will get the first boost, the real activity should develop for the set makers, who are looking forward again to a time when they won't have to worry about overstocked warehouses.

More stations also should be a boon to the networks and eliminate many of the prevailing complications. Because of the limited number of stations in many communities, network shows can't be made available simultaneously on a live basis, and are sent later by means of film.

New Atomic Blast Will Be Telecast

The growing television audience of the United States will be able to see a live telecast of an actual atomic explosion next week in Nevada through the combined facilities of Los Angeles' seven stations. The blast scenes will be offered to all networks, it was announced.

A relay system is being set up between Frenchman's Flats to Los Angeles. Some of it has been dropped from helicopters to such strategic peaks as Old Baldy, Mt. Wilson and Mt. Charleston.

Klaus Landsberg is production supervisor for the direct telecast which will show the actual blast and interviews behind scenes with troopers taking part in the maneuvers.
