LOOKING AND LISTENING

Bob Hope to Do Another TV Marathon Fund Raiser

By KING CHARLES

There is this about television: When they find something good they go all out for it.

Take wrestling, for instance, when it was tried and clicked it seemed that every night we had the matmen on the screen from about every station. If they didn't find enough live matches to fill the need they used film.

Then came quiz show; western films were used out in the early days and still do to an extent; now boxing is the rage.

The newest thing seems to be the marathons. While these marathons all have been for a good cause they will lose a lot of their money-collecting capabilities if overdone.

This area just gone through one of these two days and two nights stints for cerebral palsy victims when only last week end from New York came the very worthy Damon Runyon cancer drive conducted by Milton Berle.

Now it is announced that Bob Hope is to conduct another marathon from Los Angeles on June 21. It will be to raise funds to send athletes to the Olympic games at Helsinki. The program will open at 11 p. m. June 21 and run until 1:30 p. m. June 22.

This, too, will be a worthy cause, but if they keep it up the public soon will tire of such shows for they really haven't been too entertaining.

ON TV TONIGHT Inesita, well known for her Spanish dancing on concert stages, will perform on the Dude Martin Show on KTTV at 9, with music provided by her personal accompanist, a flamenco guitarist. Hank Penny will be there with his humor as he becomes a contestant in a quiz show. The three Gallion Brothers will play a combined total of 26 instruments.

The parking lot attendant who became a singing sensation, Champ Butler, will emcee Peter Potter's Party on KNTX at 11:15. Champ was brought to the Mo-combo last year as a fill-in and immediately became a hit.

Frosty Frolics on KTTV will present a spectacular ice revue adoption of the Peter Grimm fairy tale "Hans in Luck" when they are seen on KTLA at 8. John Kasper will be Hans.

A carnival worker becomes enmeshed in a slick racket on the midway in "The Giant Killer" which is the 6:30 offering on The Web series on KNTX.

"The Southerner," starring Zachary Scott and Betty Field will be on KTLA at 9. It is the story of share croppers in the deep south.

"When Ladies Meet," a comedy about the sophisticated American female, will be presented on KECA at 7. Patricia Morrison and Claudia Morgan will be starred.

"Rosebud," a story of a young girl who falls prey to a maniac killer, and "Sweet Little Damsel" which concerns the skill a little girl takes to drag a bigtime gambler over the ropes will be on KTLA at 7.

Conrad Nagel and Donald Cook star in "Girl From Mandalay" which will be seen on KTLA at 9.

Andy Kelly and his "Fishing's Fun" crew will show fishing activity of youngsters when they show on KECA at 8:30.

Yesterday's Newsreel on KTLA at 7:15 brings such things as Marines called in to halt mail robberies.

"Elery Queen" meets another private eye on KECA at 10 and he finds the latter's work is not so private.

An operatic vignette, a scene from Act I of "Carmen" will be a feature of the Kate Smith Hour on KNBH at 8. Many other specials will be offered.

Margaret Phelan night club singer, is the "Helping Hand" on Strike It Rich on KNTX at 6.

Welterweights Freddie Negrete and Cliff Brooks will tangle in the main event on the amateur boxing card from South Gate at 10, seen on KTTV.

Virgil Parich, one of the nation's leading cartoonists, will guest with Lee Hogan at 10:30 on KNBH. The "VIP" will demonstrate his ability.

ON RADIO TONIGHT Rosemary Clooney, popular recording artist, and Joe Venuti, violin virtuoso, are guests tonight on the Bing Crosby Show heard at 6:30 on KNTX.

The second city in "Portrait of a City" heard on KFI at 7:35 will be Baltimore. Citizens will present their city's individual personality. These will include interviews with a cab driver, a patient at Johns Hopkins Hospital, a minister and a business executive. Another feature will be the reading of some of Edgar Allan Poe's poems from the poet's home.

The 10-round bout between Jake LaMotta and Irish Bob Murphy will be heard from Detroit at 7 o'clock on KNX. Murphy won in a bout between them last summer.

What to do when company makes a mistake and comes to dinner on the wrong night will be told on "The Halls of Ivy" featuring Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Colman over KFI at 7.

Another chapter from "Big Town" with Walter Greaza and Fran Carlon comes again tonight on KNX at 9. This is followed at 9:30 by "Beulah" starring Lillian Randolph while at 9:45 will be "Club 15" with Bob Crosby and Gisele MacKenzie.

Israel Names Envoy TEL AVIV, Israel, June 11. (AP) Joseph L. Pinto, former Israeli minister to Australia and New Zealand, has been named the Jewish nation's first minister to Japan. He is expected to leave soon for Tokyo.

"Rosebud," a story of a young girl who falls prey to a maniac killer, and "Sweet Little Damsel" which concerns the skill a little girl takes to drag a bigtime gambler over the ropes will be on KTLA at 7.
