Tavern Operator Fined $100 on Liquor Charge

Donald L. Moran, operator of Dinney's bar, 205 S. Baldwin st., was fined $100 in superior court Thursday for selling liquor to a 17-year-old boy.

The youth was turned over to juvenile authorities after county police arrested him two weeks ago for driving under the influence of liquor.

GRAY HAIR

Brush It Away—At Home—Look 10 Years Young or You, at home, you can actually tint tell-tale streaks of gray to lustrous shades that challenge nature's own. Brownatone and a small brush does it. Easy to prove on a test lock of your hair. No waiting for results. One tinting imparts desired shade—from lightest blonde to darkest black. Praised by thousands. Guaranteed harmless—coloring agent purely vegetable. Scientists agree no skin test is needed. Cannot affect waving of hair. Economical-lasting, does not wash out. Simply "touch up", as new gray appears. First application must give your hair youthful color, or money back. 75c—all druggists. Get Brownatone now.

The 21st annual summer music clinic sponsored by the University of Wisconsin music school and the Wisconsin School Music assn. will be held July 5 through Aug. 13 on the university campus. Prof. Leon L. Iltis again will be in charge of the clinic and the conferences for high school directors which will be held in connection with it.

Several staff members have been selected. Prof. Richard C. Church, conductor of the University Symphony orchestra, will direct the All-State orchestra. Frederick C. Ebbs, of Baldwin-Wallace college, will conduct the All-State band. J. Russell Paxton, of the Arsenal Technical schools, Indianapolis, will direct the All-State choir.

Wendell Hoss, first horn with the RKO-Radio pictures orchestra, and Harry Peters, of Fredonia State Teachers college, N. Y., will be among the instructors. They will also be on the university's summer session faculty.

The band clinic will be from July 5 through July 23. The orchestra and chorus sections will converse from July 26 through Aug. 13.

A band directors' conference will be held July 10-24, and an orchestra and choral directors' conference is scheduled July 31-Aug. 4.

Directors of bands will have their own band during the conference, and will join the University Summer Session band in four

FROM RADIO ROW: Cathy and Elliott Lewis have been asked to star in a summer stock series at the La Jolla, Calif., theater. They are anxious to accept if radio commitments do not interfere.

NBC Hollywood has already auditioned seven shows for summer replacements and will do 13 more before the end of April. . . .

Tex Williams and his Western Caravan are branching out musically. Williams' side-kick, Smokey Rogers, has organized the Dixieland Cowhands—a combination of Dixieland and Western music—which will debut Sunday, Apr. 9, at the Riverside Rancho, North Hollywood Calif.

Meredith Willson hit the "jackpot" one day this week when he signed two contracts, one with Doubleday for his new novel, "Who Did What to Fidelia?" and the other with Bourne Music Co. for his latest musical composition, "Anthem of the Atomic Age."

Curt Massey has been offered a deal to take his radio show on a country-wide tour in June.

Jack (Queen for a Day) Bailey was once a barker in a circus and was "King of the Barkers" at the Chicago World's fair.
