'Courtney Benches' Asked at Bus Stops
Permission to erect and maintain an unattended number of "courtney benches" at bus stops on city street terraces was requested by Vincent Accardo, 810 1/2 Mound st., in a letter filed with the city council Tuesday.
Advertising on the backs of the benches is necessary to pay their maintenance costs, the letter said, and would require Commercial "B" zoning if erected on private property.
The benches are permitted in Rockford, Ill., and are common on the West coast, Accardo explained.

Inland Steel Balks on Lobbying Data
CHICAGO—(AP)—The Inland Steel Co. refused Tuesday to supply information to a congressional committee investigating lobbying. The committee's chairman termed the stand "a reason for suspicion."
Clarence B. Randall, president of Inland, said a letter he received from Rep. Frank Buchanan (D-Pa.) was "inquisitorial."
Buchanan is chairman of the house select committee on lobbying activities. He requested Inland, along with 166 large corporations, to list travel expenses, subscriptions, contributions, and advertising "dealing with public issues which might be the subject of federal legislative action."
