3 State Scouts Hurt on Way to Jamboree

AUBURN, N. Y. — (AP) — Three Boy Scouts from Wisconsin suffered minor injuries and 30 escaped unhurt Tuesday when a bus in which they were traveling crashed with a tractor-trailer.

The boys were en route from Wausau, Wis., to the national Scout jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa.

The boys, all cut by flying glass, were Thomas Dorwin, 17, and Laverne Beggs, 13, both of Minocqua and Keith Clark, 15, of Mosinee. None required hospitilization.

Sally Rand, who made theatrical news with feathers and a bubble, will be in Madison again next week, this time with the Cavaleade of Amusements. The midway will play here Monday through Saturday under auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, setting up on the E. Washington ave. showgrounds.

Miss Rand will star in a revue with a distinct musical comedy atmosphere, unusual in a tented theater. The show has special music and lyrics by Midge Fielding and Charles Barnes.

GARDEN THEATER: Otto Karl Stohr, former faculty member at the University of Minnesota, will play Harry Brock in the Luzern Garden theater production of "Born Yesterday," which will open Thursday night at Lake Geneva. Stohr has been in radio and on the professional stage.

Also in the cast will be Davina McCormac, leading woman of the Chicago Goodman theater during the past season; Bob Heise, Racine; Jean Gunter, Janesville, and others.

TRYOUTS: Tryouts for "Two Blind Mice" will be held Sunday afternoon at the Belfry theater, near Williams Bay. It will be presented July 20 through 29.

ON THE SCREEN: A color movie on health will be a part of the Capitol theater's regular program from July 12 through 18, Manager Fred Reeth has announced.

The film, "So Much for So Little," shows the functions of a local health department. The picture was produced by Warner Brothers for the United States public health service.

The Madison department of public health, urging people to see the film, pointed out that almost half of the 3,069 counties in the United States have no full-time health units.

Hicks to Narrate Girl's Story Again

Forty-two years to the hour after a Negro girl won a fight against discrimination and a National Spelling bee, the story of her triumph will be broadcast from Madison.

The broadcast, in the form of a recorded narration by Warren E. Hicks, 1826 Van Hise ave., will be at 10:15 a. m. Thursday by Station WKOW.

This will be the third year that the broadcast has been made on the same day and hour as a historical program.

The same recording was broadcast by the World Broadcasting foundation June 23, 1949, in a program directed beyond the Iron Curtain to tell the story of the American way of life.

Hicks was assistant superintendent of schools in Cleveland, O., when the little girl won the National Spelling bee there.

Top Comedians, Cantor and Allen, Sign for Television

NEW YORK—(AP)—Two top entertainers—Eddie Cantor and Fred Allen—have signed up for television programs after abandoning their radio careers.

National Broadcasting Co. (NBC) announced Tuesday the two stars would appear on a one-hour show starting early this fall.

Allen dropped out of radio about a year ago for an announced vacation from a regular program and to make a study of television.

Only recently Cantor ended his regular radio stint for a vacation before an announced intention of devoting himself exclusively to television this fall.

NBC said Cantor and Allen will be teamed with two other television stars on the program. Each will appear every fourth week on Sundays at 6 p.m. (CST).

Theater Purse Snatcher Caught Minutes Later

A 41-year-old New York City man was arrested by Madison police Tuesday afternoon, minutes after he had snatched a woman's purse in the Orpheum theater.

He admitted to police that he snatched the purse from a vacant seat next to the aisle, took about $3 from it, and discarded it in the rest room of the Rentschler Floral Co., 230 State st.

The woman reported the theft to the theater manager who called police. Almost simultaneously, employes of the floral company called police to report the ransacked purse in the rest room.

Theater employes who had become suspicious when the man purchased his second theater ticket, tipped off police to his actions and he was arrested.
