Forger Given Term; Wife Gets Probation

Superior court was the scene Tuesday afternoon of the parting of the ways for Mr. and Mrs. George R. Georgeson, both of whom pleaded guilty to five counts of forgery when assigned before Judge Roy H. Proctor. Georgeson, 28, who gave no permanent address, was sentenced to from 1 to 3 years in Waupun state prison on each count, the sentences to run concurrently. His 22-year-old wife, Irene, was given a suspended sentence of six months in the Taycheedah women's home and placed on probation for a year to the state department of public welfare. The couple, who last lived at the Washington hotel, passed $724 in worthless checks in various Madison business places during the past month, the district attorney's office said. Georgeson told Judge Proctor that "it was all my idea and my wife had nothing to do with it." The couple has four children, all of whom are staying with Mrs. Georgeson's mother.

Coal Delivery Strike Ends in Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE — (U.P.) — About 1,800 AFL coal yard workers and drivers returned to work here Tuesday after a wage increase, ending an 11-day strike that had crippled operations of about 275 independent coal dealers. The workers resumed operations at 11 major coal docks, 12 rail yards, and 275 coal companies. Frank White, business representative for union Local 257, said the union and coal operators agreed Monday night on a 15-cent hourly wage increase, retroactive to May 1.

Georgeson's office said. Georgeson told Judge Proctor that "it was all my idea and my wife had nothing to do with it." The couple has four children, all of whom are staying with Mrs. Georgeson's mother.

TIP O' THE MORNING: Don't be surprised if "Tzena, Tzena, Tzena" turns out to be the song hit of the year.

Two of the nation's top-ranking bands—Elliot Lawrence and Woody Herman—have been booked to play for dancing at Hotel Edgewater's new Starlight Roof, and a third name orchestra is likely to appear there this summer.

Lawrence will be the attraction July 18 and Herman will be there Aug. 7. The third name and date have not been definitely set.

Herman, as you may know, is a native of Milwaukee, who began his career at the age of 9 as "the boy wonder of the clarinet." He sang, danced, and played, but wasn't satisfied, so he took up the saxophone—which he mastered in three months. After high school, he studied at Marquette university. Then got his first big job—singing with Ginny Simms and Tony Martin as a member of Tom Gerun's band. He was with Harry Sosnik and Isham Jones before forming his own group.

Setting for last week's production of "Idiot's Delight" at the Wisconsin Union theater was the Lawrence R. Brown, Overland, Mo., and Wayne R. Wolfert, Sheboygan. A program error omitted credit to them.

"The Jackie Robinson Story" won the June "Blue Ribbon Award" of the National Screen Council. This is given "on the basis of outstanding merit and suitability for family entertainment."

Two important factors in NBC-WIBA's "Mr. District Attorney" are ex-Badgers, but neither will vacation in Wisconsin. Jay Jostyn, who plays the title role, will be in California and Bob Shaw, who writes the scripts, will go to Capri. But a third man—Len Doyle, who plays Harrington—plans to come out here from New York.

A scheduled tour of American service bases in Germany by Ralph Edwards and his "Truth or Consequences" show has been canceled by the army as an indirect result of the Korean crisis. Reason: lack of military air transport.

Gov. Rennebohm will visit WMAQ's "Town and Farm" program Saturday, July 22, to talk on "A Governor's View of Soil Conservation." The program is aired at 5:15 a. m., Madison time.

France Confirms Plevin as Premier, OKs Defense Plea

PARIS — (U.P.) — The national assembly Tuesday confirmed Rene Plevin as premier and endorsed his plea for a 20 per cent increase in French defense spending. "Your approval must mean that you accept the rigorous duty of increasing the sum devoted to the defense of the country," Plevin had warned.

"To those who find these expenses too great, I reply it is less costly to pay for our part of a system of common defense than to try to preserve a chimerical neutrality in solitude."

Then, in a reference to the Korean fighting, he added: "As long as the United Nations (UN) has not created the conditions for international security, the democracies must accept with virility the hard necessity of forging arms for their defense."

Everyone but the Communists and their friends applauded warmly. To the jeering benches of Red deputies, Plevin quoted a 5-year-old statement by one of their own leaders: "We must create as strong an army as possible."

The house voted his confirmation 378 to 185. The Communists and a handful of other deputies made up the opposition.

U. W. Man Takes Part in Atom Lab Program

A University of Wisconsin staff member is taking part in the summer program of Brookhaven National Laboratory at Upton, N. Y. He is William F. Donoghue, teaching assistant in mathematics. At Brookhaven he is working on a physics project. The laboratory was founded in 1947 by Associated Universities, Inc., a non-profit educational corporation which operates the laboratory under contract with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).
