Blackwood on Bridge

(By Easley R. Blackwood)

Mr. Muzzy violated a sound principle of defensive play on this hand.

That principle is: Don't lead a singleton when you have as many as four trumps.

In this situation it is usually better to try to force declarer by leading your own long, strong suit. If you can force declarer to trump often enough, you may gain control of the trump suit yourself.

South dealer. Both sides vulnerable.

North (Mr. Dale)

♠-K 4
♥-8 6 5 3 2
♦-A 7
♣-7 6 5 2

West (Mr. Muzzy)

♠-10 9 8 2
♥-10
♦-8 8 2
♣-A K J 9 3

South (Miss Brash)

♠-A Q 8 7 6
♥-A K
♦-Q J 10 6 3
♣-Q

The bidding: South West North East
1 15 Pass 1 NT Pass
3 4 Pass 3 NT Pass
4 D Pass 4 S All Pass

The opening lead was the king of clubs and Mr. Champion indicated he liked it by flashing the eight spot.

When Miss Brash played the queen, Mr. Muzzy went into a huddle.

Finally he decided that Miss Brash's card was actually a singleton—and that there was no future in the club suit. Right on the first count—but very wrong on the second.

At trick two, Mr. Muzzy shifted to the 10 of hearts, causing Mr. Champion to grit his teeth in frustration.

Miss Brash won, took three rounds of trumps and then led the ace and another diamond. Mr. Champion won with the king of diamonds and led the ten of clubs.

But Miss Brash trumped and led good diamonds until Mr. Muzzy ruffed in with his last spade.

At that time, her hand was all good—but just barely. In other words she had left just one lonely trump.

"A brilliant shift, Muzzy," said Mr. Champion sarcastically. "Why would you try for a heart ruff? You had a sure trump trick anyway."

What good would it have done to lead another club?" asked Mr. Muzzy defiantly. Miss Brash was out of the suit.

"That's just the point," Mr. Champion continued. "She would have had to ruff a second club and that would have reduced her trump holding to four—the same as yours."

"Then, when I was in with the king of diamonds, another club lead would cut her down to three trumps. Eventually your four-card spade holding would have beat the hand."

TIP OF THE MORNING: Soon you'll be able to buy a record of Meredith Willson's "Big Show" song, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." It's being waxed by seven major companies.

Julie and Juliette Gerke, twin duo-pianists, have been chosen to open the musical portion of the program at Milwaukee's first Beau Art ball, to be held Saturday night in the Milwaukee Auditorium.

The 17-year-old twins, now students at the University of Wisconsin, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Gerke, 3736 Nakoma rd. They have been playing piano together almost since babyhood.

CONTEST: The eighth annual competition for a psalm tune conducted by Monmouth college will close Feb. 23. The college offers a prize of $100 for the best setting in four-voice harmony for congregational singing of a prescribed metrical version of Psalm 148. For details, composers can write to "Thomas H. Hamilton, Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill."

'BLESS YOU ALL': Sketches for "Bless You All," musical revue now at New York's Mark Hellinger theater, were written by Arnold Auerbach, who during World War II served at Trux Field and was a regular contributor to Radio Post, the weekly newspaper which The State Journal published for the army air force base and school.

TOP TUNES: Favorite tunes last week on Madison talk-back music machines as reported by Bob Culp of WKOW.
