SPOTLIGHT

Summer in Madison

TIP O' THE MORNING: Look for a strong revival of the Benny Goodman recording of "Where or When," made about 10 years ago, with Peggy Lee singing.

Summer's season of entertainment begins in Madison tonight with the opening of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Rodeo in Penn park.

Performances will be at 8 tonight, at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday, and at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The fourth annual UNICO festival will open today at Olbrich park, and Hennes Brothers shows, one of the larger carnivals, will open Monday at the fairgrounds.

July will bring two circuses—Mills Brothers and Ringling Brothers—Barnum and Bailey.

Because music hall will be in the hands of men installing new heating and ventilating (goody-goody) equipment part of the summer, the University of Wisconsin music school has been unable to schedule any concerts there as yet.

However, two musical programs are set elsewhere—the All-State band's concert at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, July 21, and the All-State chorus and orchestra concert Sunday afternoon, Aug. 12.

In the field of drama, Wisconsin Players have announced a playbill, consisting of "The Heiress," (July 5-7), "Love's Labour's Lost" (July 19-21), "A Murder Has Been Arranged" (Aug. 2-4), and "Light Up the Sky" (Aug. 8-11) in the Wisconsin Union theater and "Uncle Vanya" (July 25-26) in the Play Circle.

DISCS OF THE DAY: On the popular side...
* Dorothy Kirsten: "Songs of Jerome Kern," with Percy Faith's orchestra. You'll go a long, long time before hearing finer singing of such Kern tunes as "I've Told Every Little Star," "All the Things You Are," "Dear Old Dad," and others. Percy Faith's orchestral support is superlative. It's a 10-inch LP (Columbia).

* Ken Griffin: "Waltz of the Roses" and "Silver Bell," sweet music (Columbia).

* Xavier Cugat orchestra: "Mambo," "Framboise," good for the Latin fans (Columbia).

* Toni Arden: "Little Child," with Paul Weston's orchestra, and "Come Back to Sorrento," with Percy Faith's orchestra—one chorus in Italian (Columbia).

* Sara Vaughan: "Deep Purple" and "These Things I Offer You," warm singing with Percy Faith's fine orchestration (Columbia).

* Art Lund: "I Like the Wide Open Spaces" and "Rose, Rose, I Love You," helped by Three Beaus and a Peep and LeRoy Holmes' orchestra (MCA).

* Earl Hines: "Piano Moods," one of the top discs of the current net is already a four-time loser in the Lohengrin dept. Gigi Perreau, who has more pictures lined up for at Universal than any of that studio's grown-up stars, has a featured role with Neal and Van Heflin in "Weekend With Father" that goes into production this week. While they were making some tests of the child, Gigi's script called for her to cry. In no time at all she was weeping great big real tears. When cameras stopped, the director, very impressed, asked Gigi, "How were you able to get so sad so fast? Were you thinking of a time when you lost your favorite doll, perhaps?" Missy Perreau answered, "Oh, no! I made myself think of all the terrible things that happened to Gloria Swanson in 'Sunset Boulevard'."

As soon as Dane Clark winds up his work in "Fort Defiance," he'll head for Europe. Expects to set off his fireworks on July 4 in Paris. Then he goes to England to co-star with John Mills (the top British favorite) in "Mr. Denning Goes North." It's a comedy.

ON THE AIR: Herbert Jackson, Middleton author, will be interviewed about his book, "A Practical Guide for the Beginning Farmer," on Elizabeth Hart's program over WMAQ at 10 a. m. Saturday.
