THE CARDINALS

Four men will leave Madison about July 14 on a musical mission to Alaska. They are the members of the Cardinals, eighth-ranking barbershop quartet in America, chosen to help the U. S. army teach recreational music to soldiers in Alaska.

The Cardinals last week took eighth place in the finals of the contest conducted by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQS) at Toledo, O. Members are Joseph L. Ripp, tenor; Jerry Ripp, lead; Vaughn Liscum, baritone, and Phil Davies, bass.

Two other quartets have been selected for similar missions. The Buffalo Bills of Buffalo, N. Y. 1950 champions, will go to Europe and the Mid-States Four of Chicago, 1949 champions, will go to Korea and other Pacific areas.

The army will fly the Cardinals from Madison to an Alaskan base. There the quartet will entertain officers and men in service, officers', and non-commissioned officers' clubs.

But the group's most important work will be demonstrating how the men can form their own quartets to entertain each other when movies and other recreational facilities fail or are not available.

The army has prepared kits of materials which the Cardinals will take along. These kits contain special quartet arrangements of popular songs and recordings of the music to show the GIs how it should sound.

The quartet will stage shows in the clubs, lead the soldiers in community singing, and teach them some of the songs.

Men and women who have taken up barbershop harmony have shown the possibilities of this kind of music for recreation as well as entertainment, particularly in groups as diverse in interests and backgrounds as the men in army stations.

The Cardinals themselves are a sample of such diversity. Joe Ripp is a mail carrier. Jerry is a mechanic at the U. S. Forest Products laboratory. Liscum is assistant comptroller at the Credit Union National assn. and Davies is an advertising man with Arthur Towell, Inc.

They expect to be gone 14 to 16 days.

TIP OF THE MORNING: Watch for a wave of almost fantastic reports of long-distance television reception. Unusual atmospheric conditions in the next few weeks will make it possible.

TOP TUNES: Most-requested records on Madison's talk-back phonographs last week (as reported by WFOV's Leon Peterson) were:

"On Top of Old Smoky," the Weavers ... "Rose, Rose, I Love You," Frankie Laine ... "Mr. and Mississippi," Patti Page ... "How High the Moon," Les Paul ... "Too Young," Nat King Cole ... "Jezebel," Laine ... "Pretty Eyed Baby," Al Trace ... "I Apologize," Billy Eckstine ... "I'm in Love Again," April Stevens ... "Sound Off," Vaughn Monroe.

FROM FILMLAND: Edith Gwynn, State Journal correspondent, writes from Hollywood:

Warners has just re-dubbed "Force of Arms," the Bill Holden-Nancy Olsen epic. It's now "The Dawn is Ours" — whatever that means. Holden is so tired that he's insisting on a slight vacation.

following his current Columbia picture, "Boots Malone" which he started "a few minutes" after finishing Warner opus. Bill's supposed to co-star with Jean Arthur in "Shane" at Paramount with no respite after "Boots." Now Bill says he'll take a suspension rather than do "Shane" — unless he's given a few weeks off before starting this new George Stevens production.
