"Undecided" was Madison's favorite song last week, a composite of three individual surveys shows.

From the eight top tunes on "Madison Hit Parade" (WFOV), "The Big Eight" (WISC), and "Most Sold Records" (WFOV), this department comes up with this result:

ONE. "Undecided."
TWO. "Cold, Cold Heart."
THREE. "Sin."
FOUR. "Because of You."
FIVE. "Downyonder."
SIX AND SEVEN (tie). "I Get Ideas" and "I've Got My Mind on You."
EIGHT. "If Teardrops Were Pennies."

CRUSADE: Two programs are being heard here in connection with "The Cardinals Rosary Crusade." They are on WKOW at 9:30 p.m. Sundays, with Bishop W. P. O'Connor, and on WGN at 7 p.m. Monday through Friday, with prominent priests of the Chicago area. The WGN program is also on the air at 8:30 p.m. Saturdays and at 7:45 p.m. Sundays.

MILESTONE: "Dr. Christian" starts its 15th year on the air tonight. It holds some sort of record for continuity, because it always has been on CBS; (2) had Jean Hersch as star; (3) had Rosemary De Camp in the leading supporting role; (4) been produced by Mrs. Dorothy McCann; and (5) had Art Gilmore as announcer, and (6) had the same sponsor.

FROM FILM: Edith Gwyn, State Journal Hollywood correspondent, reports...

Davis Convicted by Swiss Court

Charged with Spying for Sen. McCarthy

LAUSANNE, Switzerland—(AP)—The Swiss federal court Monday convicted Charles E. Davis, 25, Pasadena, Calif., of political espionage.

The American was charged with spying on Communists and United States diplomatic personnel in Switzerland on behalf of U. S. agents and Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Ordered Expelled

The court sentenced Davis to eight months imprisonment, ordered him expelled from Switzerland, and barred his re-entry for 10 years.

Judge Albert Reiss, presiding judge of the five-man court, in sentencing Davis said that the American had furnished information to U. S. officials in the Geneva consulate-general and the Paris embassy.

"He put himself at the service of the American Sen. McCarthy, with whom he was in contact either directly or through the intermediary, the agent of McCarthy in Paris, to whom he sent similar intelligence of a political nature, observing in addition for him, the American diplomatic personnel in Switzerland."

The court identified the McCarthy intermediary in Paris as John E. Farnand.

Charges Forgery

Judge Reiss charged Davis with forging a document in an effort to demonstrate falsely that John Carter Vincent, then minister of the U. S. in Bern, had Communist connections. The judge declared:

"Davis sent from Geneva on Nov. 4, 1950, in agreement with Farnand, a telegram to Mr. Vincent, with the false signature of Staempfli, one of the militant Geneva Communists, to make it appear that the minister had relations in Switzerland with the Communists. He sent to Farnand a copy of this telegram which constitutes a forgery. Davis has received from McCarthy, through the intermediary of Farnand, money for this activity."

Must Pay Costs

The court sentenced Davis to pay the costs of the long investigation and trial. The amount was not set.

Davis told correspondents: "It is true that I have been in direct contact with the senator (McCarthy), and the history of the telegram to the minister was that it was directly to discredit the minister."

Asked how he came in contact with Farnand, Davis said: "His
