TODAY'S QUOTE: "A statesman is a politician you agree with."—The Old Master.

WISKITS: Four Madison students are among the chairmen for "Wiskits," a University of Wisconsin show to be given on Saturday under the sponsorship of the Women's Athletic assn.

Jean Day, 3718 Nakoma rd., is chairman of inter-act skits. Mary Lou Sorensen, 4022 Chippewa dr., is in charge of judges and awards; Mary Trebilcock, 40 Roby rd., heads the arrangements committee, and Norma Trindle, 2541 Fairfield pl., is in charge of programs.

"Wiskits" is an annual competition among organized women's houses on the campus. The six skits to be presented in the Wisconsin Union theater were winners in try-outs held early this month. Winners in the final "Wiskits" show will receive trophies.

WISCONSIN PLAYERS: Tryouts for the Wisconsin Players production of "The Madwoman of Chaillot" will be held Dec. 12, 13, and 14 from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 10 p. m., with final tryouts at 7 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 16, Director Jonathan Curvin has announced.

Members of Wisconsin Players have been invited to a meeting of National Collegiate Players at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Riley Grant on Sunday night.

Members of the theater board will be elected at Players' meeting at 7 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 4, in the Union. Prof. Robert Gard, director of the Wisconsin Idea Theater, will speak.

"SCOOP FERRET": Charlie Andrews, writer, NBC star Dave Garroway and winner of the "Look" magazine award for the best job of TV writing last year, is coming up fast as a comedian in his own right. As "Scoop Ferret," reporter-at-large, Andrews is delighting audiences with his occasional appearances on the daily Dave Garroway radio show.

In a stumbling falsetto that reminds listeners of a well-known Hollywood gossip columnist, Andrews reels off news of the cinema, the fashion world and the night club circuit. His satires include such items as:

"Here's some news about beauty queens. Miss Dawn Comesp, of Likelihood, Vt., has been chosen Miss United States. As you know, contestants are selected not only for beauty but for talent and intelligence as well. Miss Comesp won over the other girls because she could whistle through her teeth and print capital letters up to and including 'H'."

"Here's an interesting item—Lassie, the famous dog star, has a flea just like any normal, healthy American dog. The flea was a present from the cast of Lassie's latest film, 'Lassie Come Or Stay Away—Don't Just Kope!'"

Back and forth the flea is trained to bite into when Lassie wants to scratch. Nothing is too good for a film star.

"Fashion flash from Paris! Well informed sources report girls are revolting against plain colors. Some of them are revolting against any old color.

"Here's news of an unusual home. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes have remodeled an old Pullman into a charming summer home. It has only one drawback. An unidentified porter keeps putting them out under the impression that they want to get off at Muncie, Ind."

LUDMILLA TCHERINA
Ludmilla Tcherina, Paris-born dancer who was prima ballerina in Serge Lifar's Monte Carlo ballet, will be seen as Julietta in "Tales of Hoffman," which opens today at the Parkway theater.

2-Hour Parking Zone on East Side Proposed

A 2-hour parking zone in the 1400 block on E. Washington ave., between the North Western railroad tracks and Thornton ave., was requested in a letter received by Mayor George Forster Tuesday from Gilman F. Albrecht, president of the Dairy Equipment Co.

The letter will be referred to the city council Thursday night. His company, the Home Insulation Co. and Pure Oil Co., which occupy all the street frontage on the south side of the 1400 block, Albrecht said, have provided parking spaces for all their employees at the rear of their buildings to leave the frontage free for customers.

But from 7 a. m. on daily, employees of the Red Dot Foods Co. and Ohio Chemical Co. occupy all the street spaces, leaving no room for customers and "driving business away," he complained.
