WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1952

TIP OF THE MORNING: Radio Row believes that the Johnson bill to ban liquor advertising on radio will pass the senate but will be shelved when it reaches the house.

A TOTAL of $85 in prizes is being offered by Wisconsin Players in its 1952 playwriting contest. First prize will be $45, second $25, and third $15.

Only University of Wisconsin students may compete, and the plays must run from 20 to 45 minutes. Winning entries will be produced in the Play Circle on May 20 and 21.

Entries must be postmarked before midnight Mar. 15 and must be accompanied by entry blanks which are available at the Players' office in the theater wing of the Memorial Union. You can get complete rules there, too.

THE BADGER BEAT: Wisconsin names in the news...

Karl Magnuson, Marquette pianist and composer, will be the next artist on "Music in Wisconsin," to be heard on WHA and the state network at noon Sunday.

Dave Willock may do a film based on the "Dave 'n' Charley" television show in which he co-stars with Cliff Arquette.

Louise Froland, former member of Wisconsin Players casts, has been promoted to the post of producer-director for the Vaughn Monroe radio show (NBC-WIBA Saturdays). She has been assistant to the producer the last five years. Miss Froland appeared here in "Journey to Jerusalem," "Berkeley Square," and a production of "Three Men on a Horse" with Edmond O'Brien, screen star, and Peter Turgeon, featured in "Brigadoon" in a "down-under" tour. Both men were stationed at Trux Field.

Cy Howard's "Life With Luigi" has received the annual award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews for "outstanding contributions during the past year to mutual understanding and respect" among American religious, racial, and national groups.

CIVIC CONCERT: If you haven't already done so, note "Friday night, Feb. 22" in your date book for the next concert by the Madison Civic Symphony orchestra.

CORRECTION DEPT.: That night club we told you about Tuesday will not be at Sun Prairie high school. The place will be Prairie du Chien, and the date Feb. 14.

PARLOR TRICK: Dame Myra Hess, in an interview with James Fassett on the New York Philharmonic-Symphony broadcast Sunday, revealed that she amuses her friends by playing the Chopin Black Note Study in an unusual way. She rolls an orange up and down the keyboard with her right hand, while playing the left hand part as written. Any pianist can do it, she says—just takes practice.

HAREFOOT: Tryouts for the Haresfoot club's 1952 show, "Follow the Girls," began Tuesday night and will continue at 7:30 tonight and at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Edwin Booth room of the Memorial Union.

Any male student at the University of Wisconsin may test for speaking parts or chorus, Pres. Roger Axtell said.

The show will open its tour Apr. 18 and will play at the Wisconsin Union theater the week of Apr. 25.

R. N. Qualley Marks 88th Year Thursday

R. N. QUALLEY

R. N. Qualley, 1040 Jenner st., retired state employee and well-known leader of Norwegian affairs in the city, will observe his 88th birthday Thursday.

Qualley will spend his birthday quietly at home with his wife, who is 86.

"We haven't made any plans," Qualley said Tuesday night, "but perhaps some friends will drop in on us."

When called by The State Journal Tuesday, Qualley was busy filling out his income tax return.

"Don't think I'll have to pay any," he said, "but I better fill them out just the same."

Qualley came to this country from Norway in 1890 and in 1905 built the Jenner st. home in which he has lived ever since. He and Mrs. Qualley observed their 60th wedding anniversary last Dec. 12.

"I'm not walking so well any more," Qualley says, "but I feel perfectly well."

The Qualleys have two daughters, Nora, who lives with them, and Mrs. Ed Mergen, Madison, several grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.
