FULFILLING the promise he showed four years ago, George London made a most successful concert appearance Tuesday night in the Wisconsin Union theater.

In 1947, the bass-baritone was here as a member of the Bel Canto trio, whose other singers were Mario Lanza, tenor, and Frances Yeend, soprano. Then, he impressed concert-goers as a young man to be watched, as much for the sincerity and seriousness of his approach to his music as for his voice.

He has reached a point at which many singers would be willing to level off, but his performance Tuesday night indicated, that good as he is, he has not reached the summit of his career and intends to keep climbing.

A member of the Metropolitan Opera Co., he sang more arias than most of the opera folk who give concerts. After two serious—almost forbidding—Handel works, which gave him a chance to show his excellent diction, his control, and his full-bodied tone, and a group of Wolf songs, he came with two Mozart arias in a comic vein.

They were "Madamina," from "Don Giovanni," and (as an encore) "Non Piu Andrai," from "The Marriage of Figaro." He sang them with the spirit of fun with which Mozart endowed them, and in a later encore gave Gershwin's "It Ain't Necessarily So" the same treatment.

In the Wolf group, there were touches of cynical humor in "Der Musikant" and "Der Tambour" and solemn, pure beauty in "Gesang Weyla's."

An appealing Spanish group, including a quiet carol and a lively dance, and a foursome of folk songs completed the program. In these, London's one weakness appeared—a faltering in the sustained tones of low volume. He seemed to have a slight cold, which would account for this.

Other encores were "Tres Morillas," a Spanish tune; "I Wonder As I Wander," and "Ol' Man River."

London will sing an entirely different program in the same theater at 8 tonight. It will include arias and songs by Brahms, Massenet, Moussorgsky, Strauss, Saint-Saens, Lully, and others, as well as an American group.

Good seats will be on sale at the theater boxoffice beginning at noon today.

The regional championship game will be broadcast from Reedsburg at 9:30 p. m. Saturday, Mar. 8 (after the Wisconsin-Illinois game). The following week, the station will carry the Waupun sectional, followed by the state finals in Madison on Mar. 20, 21, and 22.

ON TOUR: David Montague, Madison violinist, is on a tour of German cities which includes performances in Coblenz, Weisbaden, Hanover, Essen, Marburg, Heidelberg, and Hamburg, and a radio concert at Baden-Baden. He will return to Paris about Mar. 1.

DISC OF THE DAY: Doris Day, Danny Thomas, Paul Weston's orchestra, and the Norman Luboff choir have another unusually good movie LP in "I'll See You in My Dreams," with eight songs from the picture. It was not made from the sound track, but has the "liveness" of such discs.

AWARD: Redbook magazine today will announce the award of its annual trophy for motion picture production to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and its vice-president, Dore Schary. The award will be presented to Schary during the Mario Lanza show (NBC-WIBA) Friday night.

The magazine will cite the MGM productions of "The Great Caruso," "An American in Paris," "Show Boat," and "Quo Vadis" during 1951.

Divorce News Stars Hedy, Linda; Opera Singer Gets in Act

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Hedy Lamarr, Linda Darnell, and opera singer Inez Gorman made divorce court news Tuesday.

Of the beauteous Hedy, fourth husband Ernest (Ted) Stauffer said in an answer to her suit that he wasn't cruel — he "couldn't be cruel"—to the glamour queen. But his attorney said the denial was only for the record, and did not mean that the Acapulco, Mex., resort operator would contest her action.

Miss Lamarr earlier called the marriage "all a mistake" between two "frightfully lone" people.

Miss Darnell made her divorce from her one-time cameraman, Peverell Marley, official by picking up a final decree. The latter can be obtained only a year or more after the interlocutory. Miss Darnell said he criticized her family and friends.

Miss Gorman won an uncontested decree from Ernie Orsatti, actors' agent and former professional ballplayer.

She charged that he was cruel.

School Board President at La Crosse Quits

LA CROSSE —(AP)— School Board Pres. Walter Bigelow resigned Tuesday declaring in a statement that accusations by School Supt. M. G. Batho "are totally untrue."

Batho, who said earlier this month he would quit July 1, had declared a state of incompatability" with Bigelow due to "an atmosphere of intrigue and conniving."

"The superintendent of schools has seen fit to present an indictment of me to the public press," declared Bigelow in his statement. "The conclusions of that statement are totally untrue.

"During the past few years events have transpired which in my judgment have made my continuance in office contrary to the best interests of the La Crosse school system.

"Along with my zest and interest in the school system, problems have arisen in which I have taken an attitude which may not have been correct. I do not seek to excuse my mistakes. Most of them are the same mistakes which the retiring superintendent of schools has made.

"The conflict which has arisen between us has had its effect upon the school system. The welfare of the schools is more important than any one individual. I deem it imperative that I immediately resign my office."

Bigelow, board persident for 16 years, added that he thought Batho should make his resignation effective immediately because he "has alienated most of the administrative personnel under him and he can no longer effectively manage the school system."

Mayor Henry Ahrens, to whom Bigelow's resignation was submitted, said the City Council would meet Thursday night to set up procedure for a hearing on Batho's accusations. He said the council will act at a later date on Bigelow's resignation.

JAYNE'S P-W tablets KILL PIN-WORMS
(You may have them and not know it)

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

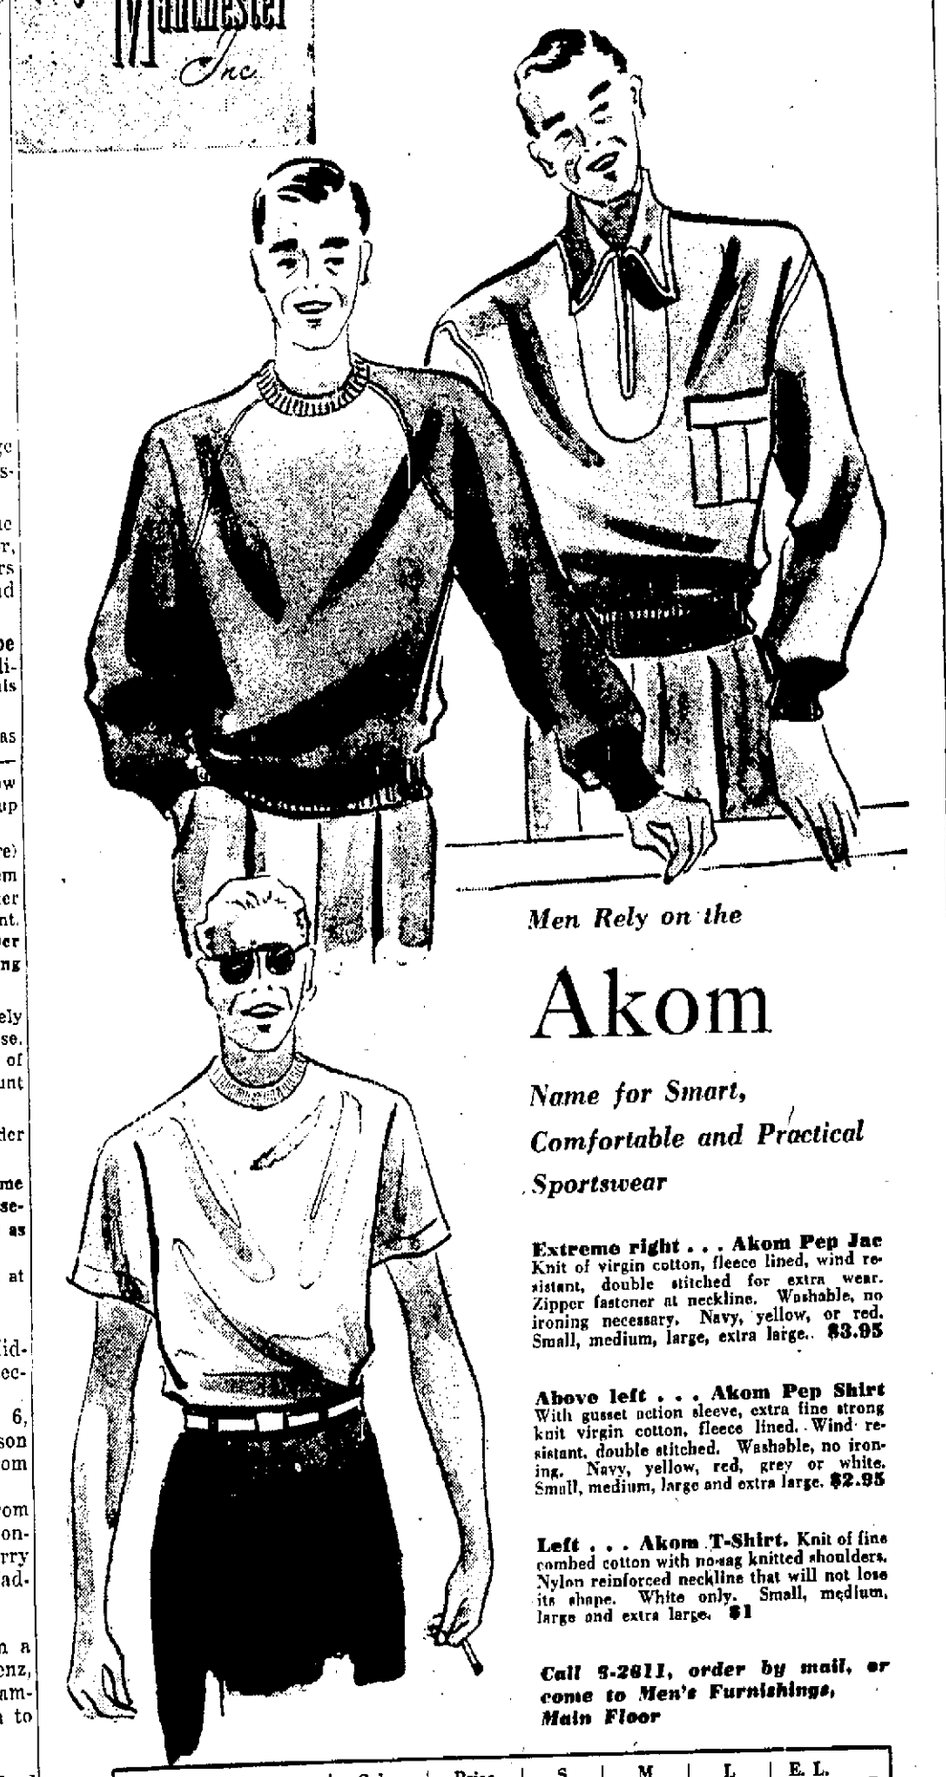

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.
