Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT 'As You Like It'

TIP O' THE MORNING: Watch for Danny Thomas to be one of the big-money men of entertainment soon. Besides being in pictures, he's on records with a two-year contract; he's reported to be getting $25,000 for a one-week Chicago theater date; he's a top night-club attraction, and a good bet as a radio guest star.

THEATERGOERS who attend "As You Like It" this week may think they're seeing double in a few cases, and triple in one, since four actors will play two parts each in the play's 24 roles, and a fifth will play three.

Joe Klein will be Duke Frederick and Corin, a shepherd; Bob Hazard, a servant and a lord; Ray Lenahan, Oliver and Sir Oliver Martext; Betty Suliver, a court lady and a shepherdess, and Gene King, Charles, Amiens, and Amiens masquerading as Hymen.

But Marjorie Schaffer will have a different kind of dual role. She will be seen in one but not in the other. The Emerson school speech teacher will play Audrey, a stupid country girl, and, off stage, will be assistant director.

Her work includes diagramming the movements of all the players, coaching actors individually, and cueing the lines.

Miss Schaffer says she likes the difficult double chore, finding it "most interesting to be able to watch a production grow and take shape, and still have the fun of acting in it."

She has had important roles in two earlier Theater Guild plays—"The Corn Is Green," Argie in "Johnny Belinda," and Carlotta Vance in "Diner at 8"—and in the Wisconsin Players productions of "Mourning Becomes Electra," "Merchant of Yonkers," "River Boat," and "The Flies."

"As You Like It" will be presented Thursday and Friday

MARJORIE SCHAEFFER

McMahon Urges Ike Be Called Home to Testify on Aid

WASHINGTON — (P) — Sen. Brien McMahon (D-Conn.), a close supporter of the Truman administration, took Capitol Hill by surprise Tuesday with a formal request that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower be called home from Europe this month to testify on the $7,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) promptly protested.

Declaring that McMahon's proposal "would have political overtones, no matter how much they are denied," Smith told newsmen: "I don't think the general should be put on the spot to come back here right now. We should consult him confidentially first and ask if he is willing to come back before making any public move of this kind."

"I don't think it's proper to play politics, or appear to play politics, on this matter at the present time," Smith said he is not committed to any candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

McMahon denied politics had anything to do with his motion, which was made at a close-door session of the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

IN CONCERT: Richard W. Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin F. Berg, 1929 Huxley st., will sing with the Concordia Cantata chorus in Bach's "Mass in B Minor" on Mar. 30. The mass will be sung at Concordia Teachers college, River Forest, Ill. Berg is a freshman.

FILM FARE: Edith Gwynn, State Journal correspondent, writes from Hollywood: Cary Grant is happily over that long, long siege with jaundice and already working in "Daring, A Growing Older." Ditto Ginger Rogers and Hugh Marlowe. Cary tells us the three have several days shooting before Marilyn Monroe is needed. So she'll undoubtedly catch up with the rest of the cast in plenty of time—and not least on her fat role in this one, despite last week's appendicitis attack.

Maggie McCrain, who is Mrs. Michael Rennie, has landed her first Hollywood role with a minor stint in M.G.M.'s "Plymouth Adventure."

DISCS OF THE DAY: Recommended "pop" recordings: "You Know You Belong to Somebody Else," vocals by Don Rogers and Kaydetts, and "My Lei-ee-Yana," vocals by chorus. Former combines dreamy and bouncy tempos; latter has a Chinese slant (Columbia).

Sarah Vaughn, with Percy Faith orchestra: "A Miracle Happened," a ballad, and "Pinky," done with no lyrics (Columbia).

Billy Williams Quartet: "Wheel of Fortune" and "After I Say I'm Sorry" (MGM).

ART: The seventh annual South-eastern Rural art exhibit will be

Club Backing Murphy Files Expense Report

(By Associated Press)

The Judge Arnold Murphy for State Supreme Court club reported receipts of $4,236, expenses of $3,336 and debts of $89 Tuesday.

The club filed with the secretary of state.

Circuit Judge Alvin C. Reis, Madison, listed expenditures of $3,631; Justice Grover Broadfoot $1,184; and Marshall Peterson, Monroe, $820.

Broadfoot and Murphy were nominated in the Mar. 4 primary to run for the high court vacancy in the Apr. 1 election.

Youth, 18, Fined $50 for Beer Purchasing

Arthur Joseph Maertz, 18, of 818 Bowman ave., paid a $50 fine in Superior Court Tuesday for procuring 12 cans of beer for three Madison 17-year-olds, a boy and two girls.

County police found Maertz and the three minors drinking the beer Monday night in Maertz's car parked at the Estes school along Trunk BB in Blooming Grove.
