

TIP O' THE MORNING: Broadcasts of University of Wisconsin commencement events via WHA and WHA-FM will include the honors convocation June 19; commencement and Half-Century club luncheon June 20; class reunion luncheons and Wisconsin Alumni assn. dinner June 21.

LIBERANCE, the ex-Milwaukee pianist, is doing a one-man show on television as a summer replacement for Dinah Shore. Incidentally, his recordings of "September Son" and "I Want My Mama" are getting steadily increasing sales.

Thor Johnson, Wisconsin Rapids-born conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, will direct the orchestra at the Great Composers Festival in Charlottesville, Va., June 13, 14, and 15.

William Bendix, erstwhile "Riley" of radio, will portray the first mate in "Blackbeard the Pirate," now being filmed. Bendix was at the Parkway several years ago in "The Time of Your Life."

Jean Hersholt has recorded several weeks' "Dr. Christian" plays before sailing with Mrs. Hersholt for a tour of Europe. They will leave New York on Friday. At Copenhagen, he will be guest of honor at the city's 40th annual celebration of U. S. Independence day.

Dick Powell will turn movie director when he completes his role in "Tribute to a Bad Man" for MGM. He will direct "Breakaway" for RKO-Radio. Whether this will interfere with his plans for a summer vacation in Europe with his wife, June Allyson, hasn't been told.

Donald Gram, Milwaukee bass, will be a soloist at the Bach festival in Carmel, Calif., July 14-20.

Marie Wilson will discard her "Ima" personality to co-star with Rosalind Russell in "Never Wave at a WAC." A second picture deal would co-star her with Groucho Marx.

Two former Madison singers—William Ross and Dan Vornholt—will be on the faculties of voice teacher workshops to be sponsored this summer by the National Assn. of Teachers of Singing. Ross will be chairman of workshop at Indiana university, where he heads the vocal department, and will teach at sessions at Ohio State university, University of Colorado, and University of Southern California. Vornholt will be on the workshop faculty at Appalachian State Teachers college, Boone, N. C.

TODAY'S QUOTE: "A birth of a doubt is the beginning of an education."—The Halls of Ivy.

GILBERT AND SULLIVAN: Charles L. Wagner, who for many years has presented touring grand opera companies, this year will turn to Gilbert and Sullivan. He is booking a tour of American Savoyards, Inc., in "The Mikado" and "Patience," and will follow it in the 1953-54 season with "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "The Pirates of Penzance."

The Savoyards company is an enlargement of Dorothy Raedler's Masque and Lyre troupe, which has been presenting Gilbert and Sullivan operas in New York City to the acclaim of critics and audiences. It gave its first shows in the Jan Hus house on New York's upper East Side—surroundings recalling the early days of the D'Oyly Carte Co. at the Little Opera Comique in London and the Theater Guild in a Greenwich Village loft.

Wagner will augment the original productions with full orchestra and chorus. Miss Raedler will be director.

DISCS OF THE DAY: If you like "Kiss of Fire"—and most listeners seem to—you'll find Toni Arden's Columbia recording one of the best. It's paired with "I'm Yours," also a good version.

AT ST. LOUIS: The 34th annual season of light opera and musical comedy by the St. Louis Municipal Opera will open Thursday with "Show Boat." The Kern-Hammerstein classic will run 11 nights.

The 88-night season will close Aug. 31. All performances will be at 8:30 p. m. in the 12,000-seat amphitheater in Forest Park. Following "Show Boat" will come "Sally," June 16-22; "The Cat and the Fiddle," June 23-29; "Rose Marie," June 30-July 6; "The Student Prince," July 7-13; "The Bartered Bride," July 14-20; "Countess Maritza," July 21-27; "Mlle. Modiste," July 28-Aug. 3; "Naughty Marietta," Aug. 4-10; "Babes In Toyland," Aug. 11-17, and "Annie Get Your Gun," Aug. 18-31.

The lone newcomer to the 1952 repertory is Irving Berlin's "Annie Get Your Gun." "Countess Maritza" returns to the Forest Park stage after an absence of 21 seasons. "The Student Prince" will be seen for the first time in Forest Park since 1933, and "Mlle. Modiste" was last produced by Municipal Opera in 1934.
