TIP O' THE MORNING: Giveaway shows are being used in some radio and television spots as summer replacements. If they have any success at all, look for a lot of them on both radio and TV in the fall.

BETTY McGUIRE and the Belle-Tones, girls' quartet, will open a six-week engagement Friday, June 27, at the River-view ballroom, Sauk City. They'll play and sing nightly and Sunday afternoons, and their appearances will include one with Jerry Gray and his Club 16 orchestra on July 18.

The group has been appearing at the Golden Nugget in downtown Las Vegas, Nev. Miss McGuire plays bass. Zo Ruthertford doubles on xylophone and trumpet. Betty Lou White is pianist and singer, and Verle Henry plays drums. Miss Henry, a former teacher, is the troupe's comedienne, too.

The Philadelphia Museum of Art has purchased an etching, "Autobiographical," by George D. O'Connell of Madison. O'Connell is working for his degree of doctor of philosophy at Ohio State university.

Marius Goring, British actor, will have the title role in "The Scarlet Pimpernel," dramatic series starting July 1 on NBC-WIBA.

Judy Gilbert, who plays Rosa on "Life with Luigi," the Cy Howard show heard on CBS-WKOW, will be on stage this summer. She has signed with the Los Angeles Circle theater.

Edward Hall, Howard university student, has joined the permanent company of "Playhouse on Broadway," the contract resulted from his performance June 1 in "Outward Bound."

Members of the Fine Arts quartet, heard Sundays on ABC-WENR, have been named artists-in-residence at Northwestern university for the next academic year. They are Leonard Sorkin and Joseph Stepansky, violins; Sheppard Lehnhoff, viola, and George Sopkin, cello. Sopkin once was a member of the Pro Arte quartet.

A film version of Dreiser's "Sister Carrie" will be released in August. The cast includes Laurence Olivier, Jennifer Jones, Miriam Hopkins, and Edie Albert.

Dennis Morgan's next picture will be "Cattle Town," outdoor adventure drama with Bryan Foy directing.

Producer Louis de Rochemont, who always shoots his motion pictures on location and uses passengers for extras, is still holding a check for a too-obedient student who hired on for a stroll before the cameras while "Walk East on Beacon," new FBI film which Columbia is releasing, was being made.
