CertFirstLines: Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar: Introduction

Johnny Dollar was "the man with the action-packed expense account, America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator... Johnny Dollar". "Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar" ran from 1949 through 1962 on CBS. The episodes were framed in the manner of an expense account, with Johnny periodically stating an expense and its value, in between all the action. Most of the 800+ episodes opened with a ringing telephone and Johnny answering the phone stating his name. Usually, the title of each episode was embedded at the beginning of Johnny's expense account, and except for the first few dozen episodes, all the titles of the episodes were along the lines of "The <Something> Matter".

The demise of "Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar" is marked by many as the official end of Old Time Radio.

CertFirstLines: Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar: All Episodes

From December 7, 1948 through September 30, 1962:

Audition Program with Dick Powell in the lead role.

Date Aired:	48/12/07
Episode Number:	----
Available:	YES
Title:	Milford Brooks III
Description:	Johnny is hired to keep Mr. Brooks from committing suicide and a $2 million dollar policy from paying off.
Cast:	Dick Powell, William Conrad, Betty Lou Gerson, Joseph Kearns, Paul Dudley (writer), Gil Doud (writer), Anton M. Leader (director).
Notes:	1. Audition program. 2. "Yours Truly, Lloyd London" on original script. 3. There is no broadcast log entry for this episode in the New York Times, this date. 4. Nor the Chicago Tribune, the Los Angeles Times, or the Washington Post. 5. There is no evidence this episode was ever broadcast. 6. The program opening seems like it is an introduction to the "New Adventure Series" Johnny Dollar character. 7. Modified script is broadcast with a different cast March 25, 1949, as Episode 5.
First Line:	[Music] "The Columbia Broadcasting System presents... the thrilling new adventure series starring Dick Powell." [Music] "I'm an insurance investigator. My name is Johnny Dollar." "What?" "You heard me, Johnny Dollar, and I can pad an expense account with the best of 'em." [Music] "Yup, I'm a freelance insurance investigator, and I live in Hartford, Connecticut -- at least, that's where I pay rent. My work sees to it that I really live anywhere, except at home. If you're interested in buying me Christmas presents, I take a size 42 suit. Shirts 15 and a half collar, sleeve length 33. My hat size is 7 and an eighth -- except when I wind up a successful case... then it runs about 7 and three eighths. At insurance investigation, I'm just an expert. At making out my expense account, I'm an absolute genius." [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Investigator Johnny Dollar. To: Home Office, East Coast Underwriters, Terminal Building, Hartford, Connecticut. Attention: Austin Farnsworth, General Manager. The following is an accounting of my expenditure in the investigation of Milfred Brooks, the Third, for your company."

Title: The Parakoff Policy
Description: While investigating a Benton, Ohio, murder involving a beautiful widow in negligee, Johnny is beat up by two cops.
Notes:

1. First show of series.
2. Alternate spellings: Parakoff, Parikoff.
3. There are two versions of the episode, each has a different musical score.
4. The New York Times indicates the "Premier" episode of Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar was broadcast on WCBS at 10:30 pm, Friday, Feb 18, 1949.
5. There is no published broadcast play date on February 11, 1949 for the Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar show.
6. Promo at the end of the show announces a special CBS broadcast on Sunday, Feb 20, 1949, starting Eddie Albert, about mental hospitals, "Mind in the Shadow, comes to you in a repeat performance".

First Line: "Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar." [Music] "The next half hour has its baggage packed to take a trip with America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator, Johnny Dollar. At insurance investigation, he's just an expert -- at making out his expense account, he is an absolute genius!" [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Investigator Johnny Dollar. To: Home Office, East Coast Underwriters, Terminal Building, Hartford, Connecticut. The following is an accounting of my expenditures in the investigation regarding the Parakoff Policy for your company."

"Mind in the Shadows"

1. NOT A "YOURS TRULY, JOHNNY DOLLAR" EPISODE!
2. There is evidence in some logs that there was a broadcast Feb 18, 1949 titled "Mind in the Shadows" starring Charles Russell; however, this would not be possible, given the Premier episode, The Parakoff Case, was broadcast on this date.
3. This evidence further indicates the arbitrarily sequentially assigned episode numbers are off by 1. Episode 1 would be assigned to the documented "Premier" broadcast, "The Parakoff Policy", 49-02-18.
4. This certified collection continues using the established sequential numbering scheme from Episode 2, "The Slow Boat from China", broadcast 49-02-25.
5. "Mind in the Shadow": This title was a CBS Special expose-type show, based on a reporters six month research at a mental facility. Starring Eddie Albert, and brought back by popular demand for rebroadcast on Sunday, Feb 20, 1949, WBBM Chicago 9:00-10:00.
6. The original broadcast of "Mind in the Shadow" was Wednesday, Feb 2, 1949. The following is the promo from the Nebraska State Newspaper: ONE NOTEABLE departure from the usual will be CBS' hour-long documentary Wednesday night, "Mind in the Shadows". The program is built around the dramatic account exploring the problem of mental health in the U.S. Actor Eddie Albert, who will narrate the factual report, heads a capable cast. KFAB at 9:00.
7. From a Jan 1, 1949 New York Times article: "Mind in the Shadow", a documentary program dealing with bad conditions prevailing in many mental institutions, will be offered by CBS from 10 to 11 P.M. on Wednesday, Feb. 2. Arnold Perl is the writer and Werner Michel will produce.
8. From Feb 2, 1949 Washington Post: WTOP 10 -- Full hour documentary on mental health, entitled "Mind in the Shadow", starring Edward Albert.
9. A six paragraph article by Jack Gould was published in the New York Times on Feb 13, 1949, describing the "Mind in the Shadow" program. It also indicated that the show would be "repeated at 12:30 next Sunday afternoon".
10. From a Feb 13, 1949 Washington Post article by Sonia Stein: CBS' "Mind in the Shadows" documentary on institutions for the mentally ill has been so well received it will be repeated next Sunday from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. with the same cast.
11. Chicago Tribune, New York Times, and Washington Post radio logs for Sunday, Feb 20th, 1949, all indicate that "Mind in the Shadow" was to be broadcast at 12:30 PM (11:30 AM in Chicago).
12. Promo at the end of The Adventures of Philip Marlowe Episode "The Easy Mark" on Jan 29, 1949, for the broadcast of Mind in the Shadows on Wednesday, February 2, 1949.

Title: The Slow Boat from China

Description: Johnny goes to Singapore to expedite a shipment of tin and finds everyone looking for a mysterious "it".

Cast: Charles Russell, Mark Warnow (composer, conductor), Paul Dudley (writer), Gil Doud (writer), Richard Sanville (producer, director).

Notes:	The show features a bad guy who sounds like a Sydney Greenstreet imitator. Johnny even tells him, "Your mother must have been frightened by Sydney Greenstreet!".
First Line:	[Music] "The Columbia Broadcasting System presents... Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar ." [Music] "The next half hour has its baggage packed to take a trip with America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator, Johnny Dollar. At insurance investigation, he's just an expert -- at making out his expense account, he is an absolute genius!" [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Special Investigator Johnny Dollar. To: Home Office, Oriental West, Cargo Bonding Company, San Francisco. The following is an accounting of my expenditures during my investigation of delayed cargo aboard the S. S. Shanghai Wayfarer. Or, the case of the slow boat from China."

Title:	The Robert Perry Case
Description:	Mr. Perry is blown into smithereens as soon as Johnny shows up in New York City to protect him. A beautiful-but-unfaithful wife has a great motive!
Cast:	Charles Russell, Paul Dudley (writer), Gil Doud (writer), Richard Sanville (producer, director), Mark Warnow (music).
Notes:	1. Show ends with Promo for Jack Benny on the Ford Theater earlier on the same night. 2. Script reused March 4, 1949 in Episode 38.
First Line:	[Music] "The Columbia Broadcasting System presents... Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar ." [Music] "The next half hour has its baggage packed to take a trip with America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator, Johnny Dollar. At insurance investigation, he's just an expert -- at making out his expense account, he is an absolute genius!" [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Special Investigator Johnny Dollar. To: Home Office, American Continental Life Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut. The following is an accounting of my expenditures fulfilling your assignment as a, uh, a bodyguard -- the body being that of your late policy holder, Robert W. Perry."

Title:	Murder is a Merry-Go-Round
Description:	Murder at the circus in Talladega, Alabama... with snakes!
Cast:	Charles Russell, Mark Warnow (music).
Notes:

First Line: [Music] "The Columbia Broadcasting System presents... Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar."
[Music] "The next half hour has its baggage packed to take a trip with America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator, Johnny Dollar. At insurance investigation, he's just an expert -- at making out his expense account, he is an absolute genius!" [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Special Investigator Johnny Dollar. To: Home Office, Nutmeg State Casualty and Bonding Company, Hartford, Connecticut. The following is an accounting of my expenditures during investigation of series of accidents affecting your policy holder, The Fun Fair and Weatherly Carnival Shows, or how I went for a spin on a case we might refer to as Murder is a Merry-Go-Round."

March 18, 1949 -- Pre-empted. There was no program information to explain the break in weekly schedule sequence of 03/18/49 other than a log entry of pre-empted. The New York Times indicates the show was pre-empted for the following address: Dean Acheson, Secretary of State. Speaking on the North Atlantic Defense Pact: from Washington.

Date Aired: 49/03/25

Episode Number: 5

Title: Milford Brooks III Matter

Description: A policy that pays $2 million in case of suicide causes trouble because the man has no reason to live.

Cast: Charles Russell, Paul Dudley (writer), Gil Doud (writer), Mark Warnow (writer), Richard Sanville (producer, director).

Notes: This script was the modified version of the never broadcast audition version read by Dick Powell. Significant changes are the removal of the references to it being a new show and introducing Johnny Dollar.

First Line: [Music] "The Columbia Broadcasting System presents... Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar."
[Music] "The next half hour has its baggage packed to take a trip with America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator, Johnny Dollar. At insurance investigation, he's just an expert -- at making out his expense account, he is an absolute genius!" [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Special Investigator Johnny Dollar. First Line:	"If you take a trip half way around the world, you've got to expect you'll get your ticket punched." [Music] "This is another in the adventures of America's fabulous freelance insurance investigator, Johnny Dollar. At insurance investigation, Johnny Dollar is only an expert -- at making out his expense account, he is an absolute genius!" [Music] "Expense Account: Submitted by Special Investigator Johnny Dollar. To: The Constant Sun Trading Company, Cairo, Egypt. And, uh, may I say, this is an unexpected pleasure. The one thing I didn't expect to bump into during this case was somebody to pay the bills. It started out being my answer to a fire alarm, rung 12,000 miles away, by an old war-time friend. It wound up being a game of who gets killed first with a bunch of guys who suddenly declared themselves a small peace-time war. The difference of opinion arose over a little hassle I might call The Expiring Nickels and the Egyptian Jackpot."

The vacation announcement in September 4, 1949, 018 indicates Eve Arden will begin in the current time slot on 09/11/49. Salomonson log indicates 09/11/49 and 09/18/49 are pre-empted. New York Times lists Our Miss Brooks with Eve Arden in both time slots. Vacation announcement also places next Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar show on Saturday, 10/01/49.

Salomonson notes the broadcasts of 11/24/51 and 12/01/51 were pre-empted. But, Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar was scheduled for Saturday, 11/24/51 at 7:00 pm, in the New York Times, and several other affiliate stations. There was no schedule for Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar on KNX in the Los Angeles Times or in the Chicago Tribune for 11/24/51.

On the following Saturday, 12/01/51, there was no listing for Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar in the New York Times, but again, there were several Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar listings for the affiliate stations.

There were no significant national news events for either Saturday that would have been an obvious reason for pre-empting the regular broadcasts. This issue remains unresolved.

Chicago Tribune of 11/24/51 lists Visiting Time in the 6:00 pm time slot.

Washington Post of 12/01/51 lists Jan Garber and Golden West Race in the 7:00 pm and 7:15 pm time slots.

Programming pre-empted by the Republican Convention Monday, 08/20/56, through Thursday, 08/23/56.

Program scheduling of "The Kranesburg Matter" included knowledge of the Convention. First script was planned for a Friday broadcast as Episode #1. In order to stay with standard practice, the Monday show was sequenced as Episode #1-A. Tuesday resumed the standard name of Episode #2.

There are many instances of Yours Truly, Johnny Dollar collections containing seven separate episodes of "The Kranesburg Matter", but a total of six is correct.
